Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Dixon Journal: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rich were east bound passengers Wednesday morning.

Ponca Advocate: Miss Monica Manley, of Jackson academy, spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. Cullen.

Walthill Times: Mrs. G. R. Collins, of Vermillion, S. D., went to Jackson Saturday, after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Myron Tompkins.

Wynot Tribune: Mrs. D. E. Crouch and daughter, Mrs. E. Thorpe, visited with Donald Crouch in South Sioux City the latter part of last week.

Sioux City Journal, 20: A. L. Mathwig has been promoted from company officer to special agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad with an enlargement of jurisdiction, according to notice received from W. A. Scholl, general inspector for the railroad.

Wayne Democrat: Rev. J. L. Phillips, of Pilger, was here Tuesday on his way to Sioux City for a short stay....Mrs. Florence Wilbur, of Sioux, and her daughter, Miss Fannie Wilbur, who attends the Wayne Normal, visited one day last week at the Wm. Beutow home.

Gordon Items in Norfolk News: Mrs. Gertrude Leedom-Kiernan arrived Saturday night from Aurelia, Ia., for a visit with the home folks. Her father, B. S. Leedom, is not enjoying the best of health. Mr. Kiernan will come later and he and Mrs. Kiernan will take a trip to Hot Springs and the Black Hills.

Ponca Journal: Mrs. Hedges was in Sioux City the first of the week. Miss Campbell has been released from her contract with the school board to serve as teacher for one of the grades next year. Miss Campbell has been elected to the West Point schools and has accepted. Clara Cook has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Rosalie Ripsaw: Mr. and Mrs. Bud McKinley, Miss Jennie Kavich, John Jenkins and Miss Mary Kuhn were all Dakota City visitors last Sunday. Miss Kavich says the latter named couple were there with the intention of getting married but they got cold feet and backed up. They all visited at the Judge McKinley home.

Sioux City Journal, 18: Miss Kilian Hallett and William Iverson were married at Dakota City Saturday afternoon. News of the event was made public yesterday....Supervisors of drainage district No. 3, of Dakota county, Nebraska, have received notice from the contractors who will construct the Jackson lake ditch that the machinery to be used in the operations will be shipped from Omaha this week. The contractors hesitated to begin the work while the injunction litigation is pending in the United States circuit court.

Homer, Neb., Special in Omaha Bee, 22: Superintendent Mullin of the Burlington railroad and four or five other officials of the road came to Homer today (Sunday) for the purpose of making an examination of the bridge over which all foot passengers reach the depot. The Homer Commercial club and the village authorities expect to file a formal complaint with the State Railway commission at an early date. As the construction of a foot bridge as asked by them will be a new question for the commission, it will be watched with interest over the state.

Allen News: The gang that was repairing the telephone lines in this vicinity went to Jackson Tuesday....Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Aucock, of Dakota City, are spending a few days here at the Kilburn home....Sterling Stewart and Guy Anderson, of Hubbard, are in Kansas, writing threshing machine insurance....The Waterbury saloon which has quenched the thirst of the weary pilgrims for so these many years, is closed. It's awful, Mabel! The case has been appealed to the district court by the remonstrator, Miss Gerken, the Methodist deaconess, and for that reason the board did not issue the license.

Sioux City Journal, 22: On the allegation that irregularities were practiced in the forced sale of his 320-acre farm in Dakota and Dixon counties six weeks ago, when it was acquired by W. S. Gilman, of Sioux City, Michael Mullally, of Dakota City, Neb., has commenced action in the district court at Dakota City to set aside the judgment and foreclosure. The petition, which he has filed with George Wilkins, clerk of courts, also asks the court to quiet title and cancel notes and mortgages and to allow exemption. Six defendants are named in the suit, which will be tried before Judge Guy T. Graves on questions of law, jury not being needed. The defendants are E. E. Halstead, of Ponca, Neb., Security bank, Ponca, Neb., James Walsh, of Waterbury, Neb., W. S. Gilman, of Sioux City, Rudolph Shopke, of Emerson, Neb., and W. L. Challan, of Waterbury, Neb. The mortgage on the farm was held by Mr. Halstead and the Security bank of Ponca. At the foreclosure sale the land was purchased by Mr. Gilman, who in turn sold it to Challan and Walsh. Mr. Mullally's action is based on the alleged lack of jurisdiction of the court, because of the irregularities in the foreclosure sale. More than a half dozen attorneys will be engaged in the litigation, which may come up at the session of the court which opens at Dakota City tomorrow.

Sioux City Journal, 19: Four express wagons loaded with liquor were seized yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Ed Becker and Detectives Fred Spencer and Harry Luce, as the vehicles passed to the Iowa side of the combination bridge en route from Jackson, Neb., to Sioux City. Three arrests were made and a large quantity of liquor, alleged to have been improperly addressed, was taken from two of the wagons. Harry Beath, 17 years old, and Lawrence Moran, 18 years old, of Jackson, Neb., and M. J. Williams, 50 years old, 206 Cook street, said to be drivers for the Overland Express company, each were charged with the illegal transportation of liquor. Beath and Moran were in charge of one wagon. The other two wagons taken by the police were released at headquarters after it was learned that the packages carried were properly addressed and billed. According to the police, the released wagons were those of the Interstate Transportation company, whose wagons and warehouse were raided several weeks ago by a police squad under Special Investigator Jens Nielsen. The liquor seizure yesterday amounted to twenty-three cases and three barrels of beer and about thirty gallons of whisky. The wagons were driven into the barn at police headquarters, where officers checked off the packages in the wagon with the bills of lading carried by the drivers. To make a further test that the packages were being delivered in accordance with the law, the street numbers on the labels were checked with the city directory. Liquor containers which bore alleged improper or no labels at all were held by the police, while the other packages were allowed to remain on the wagons. One of the stalls at police headquarters, formerly occupied by patrol horses, was converted into a liquor storeroom, where the goods may be kept under lock. Becker, Spencer and Luce yesterday afternoon spent several hours on the combination bridge waiting for the approach of the liquor wagons.

Notice

There are many reliable farm papers issued nowadays that supply the farmers and stockmen with cashable and workable ideas, but the best suited to the farmers of this section is Farmer and Breeder. It is issued semi-monthly at Sioux City, Ia., and is intensely interesting and practical. It regularly carries veterinary, dairy, poultry, horticulture, home and fashion departments in addition to market and live stock news. The special feature stories about successful farmers and breeders give many valuable hints, suggestions, and lessons that any intelligent farmer can apply with profit.

MONEY-SAVING OFFER

The Herald has made special arrangements with Farmer and Breeder which enables us to offer you The Herald and Farmer and Breeder both for one year for only $1.00. Send us your subscription now and save money. This offer is good for only a limited time. Every subscriber to Farmer and Breeder is entitled to free consultation with its editors on any phase of farming or stock raising.
